D. Necessity for Appearance by Applicant

The Chapter 11 Trustee has retained CKR Law LLP (“CKR” to represent him in the above-captioned case. I am a graduate of Villanova University, the University of Pennsylvania and Villanova Law School. I am an experienced bankruptcy litigator and have eighteen years of experience in bankruptcy litigation and insolvency matters. I also have experience investigating and prosecuting civil fraud in the bankruptcy context in general and involving Russian defendants

In addition to my significant bankruptcy and Chapter 11 experience, CKR

1 Law also has an extensive bankruptcy and restructuring department, with attorneys 2 experienced in representing Chapter 11 debtors, creditors' committees, secured and 3 unsecured creditors, trustees, asset purchasers and sellers, and other parties in 4 complex bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings in courts across the country.

5 This bankruptcy matter also involves cutting-edge blockchain technology.
6 CKR is particularly well-suited to represent the Chapter 11 Trustee in this Chapter
7 11 case, because CKR has one of the largest and most experienced blockchain
8 practice groups in the United States. CKR's Blockchain Technology & Digital 9 Currency practice group provides clients with sophisticated, value-added legal 10 advice in legal matters involving bankruptcy, real estate, intellectual property, 11 banking, finance, securities, corporate, crowdfunding, investment funds, 12 employment, and litigation. Recently, my partner Alexandra Levin Kramer was 13 named by ICO Alert (a blockchain trade group) as the only practicing attorney in 14 the United States on their list of Top 40 Blockchain Influencers of 2018. CKR's
15 knowledge and experience in blockchain and related issues will allow the Chapter
16 11 Trustee to discharge his duties in this factually and legally-complex Chapter 11 17 proceeding.
